

"There are three types of baseball players: those who make it happen, those who watch it happen, and those who wonder what happened."

Tommy Lasorda

"You owe it to yourself to be the best you can possibly be—in baseball and in life."

Pete Rose

"Playing baseball is not real life. It's a fantasy world—it's a dream come true."

"Baseball gives every American boy a chance to excel, not just to be as good as someone else but to be better than someone else. This is the nature of man and the name of the game."

Ted Williams

"You spend a good deal of your life gripping a baseball, and it turns out it was the other way around all the time."

Jim Bouton

MISSION STATEMENT

Our goal is to not only teach these young men the mechanics and fundamentals of baseball, but to teach them about respect, responsibility and discipline. In addition, we will teach them sportsmanship, fair play, and teamwork. Last, and above all, we stress having fun.
